2. Reality House Programs strives hard to maintain PREA compliance. Stated below are the criteria that was outlined as our goal and met.

- Background checks were completed specifically for sexual harassment or sexual abuse for new hires that were employed with other institutions.
- Applications have the provided language to inquire as to whether a new hire had allegations or charges for sexual abuse or sexual harassment.
- Volunteers receive PREA training and acknowledge policies and procedures.
- PREA Coordinator and Security Director received specialized investigation training
- PREA information posted on website
- All employees receive PREA training four times a year and fully understand PREA
- All Residents receive orientation material and continued PREA education material
- The procedure for housing based on the resident PREA screening is properly documented and disseminated for aggregated data.
- All resident assessment screenings are not only done self-report but through use of Case Net.
- Resident Rules of Conduct or SOP had the procedure on how to file an emergency grievance within 5 days.

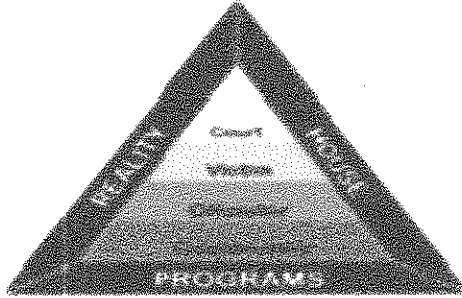

RHP works toward full compliance with PREA standards. RHP will implement mock PREA audits to ensure compliance is being met. RHP will continuously identify problem areas in the policies and practice at the agency level. The audits also provide additional education about PREA to agency staff. Overall the changes that have occurred this year have greatly improved the PREA culture in the agency providing a safer environment.
